FY 2014 Request for Applications for Title II Development Food Assistance Programs

USAID released the final Fiscal Year 2014 (FY 2014) Request for Applications (RFA) for Title II Development Food Assistance Programs in Burundi, Madagascar and Malawi. The documents for FY 2014 include the RFA itself along with country-specific information for the three countries indicated (i.e., Burundi, Madagascar and Malawi).

Click here to download the documents.

Applications are due on Thursday, April 3rd by 11:59 a.m. (Eastern Standard Time).

Applications are submitted at the risk of the applicant, and all preparation and submission costs are at the applicant's expense.

USAID reserves the right to adjust the number of awards, funding levels and sources of funding, given the budget environment and other considerations.

Please note that no FFP country backstop officers or field representatives should be contacted about information contained in the RFA materials. All comments and inquiries should be directed to Juli Majernik at jmajernik@usaid.gov with a copy to FFPDocs@amexdc2.com.

FFP technical experts relied on comments received from the food aid community as well as input from the June meeting with TOPS concerning the FY 2013 RFA for several of the changes in this FY 2014 RFA.

The TOPS Program was made possible by the generous support and contribution of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents of this newsletter do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.

The FSN Network is being spearheaded by TOPS, a USAID/FFP funded program seeking to build the capacity of FFP grantees and other food security and nutrition implementers. The program is working to improve the quality of implementation through fostering collaboration, innovation, and knowledge sharing around food security and nutrition best practices.
