

Better Together: Improving Food Security & Nutrition by Linking Market and Food Systems

We will explore:

- A literature review of market and food systems
- The Inclusive Market and Food Systems Model
- The importance of bringing the market to vulnerable households
- How empowering women multiplies nutritional outcomes
- How access does not necessarily equal consumption
- The impact of COVID-19 on programming and adaptive management for livelihood programs

Meeting Room:

meetings.ringcentral.com/j/2058673908

May 27th, 9:00 am EDT/1:00 PM GMT

RSVP: improvingfsnwebinar.rsvpify.com

For more information: Nana Coleman (ncoleman@worldvision.org)

Click here to read the article published in the “Enterprise Development and Microfinance” Journal

