Applications for TOPS-WASH Bangladesh Sanitation Solutions RFA Due November 1, 2018

This is a reminder that applications for the TOPS WASH Award aimed at tackling key sanitation challenges in flood-prone areas of northern Bangladesh are due at 5PM EDT, this Thursday, November 1. This request for applications (RFA) is the first in a series of calls for applications for applied research to support the learning and evidence-building efforts of the TOPS WASH Award, funded by USAID's Office of Food for Peace (FFP). TOPS-WASH aims to strengthen the effectiveness and sustainability of WASH practices in FFP-funded development and emergency food security activities.

Save the Children may fund up to two awards under this RFA for up to US$75,000 per award for the design of a sanitation solution and accompanying implementation plan that is affordable and sustainable in flood-prone areas. For details on proposal submission guidelines, timing, subject areas and review criteria please refer to the RFA package available online at: <https://www.fsnnetwork.org/WASH>.

Questions and answers pertaining to this RFA are posted online at: <https://www.fsnnetwork.org/WASH>.

Submissions for this RFA are due by 5PM EDT on November 1, 2018 and should be submitted to tops.wash.bangladesh.rfa@savechildren.org.

The TOPS Program was made possible by the generous support and contribution of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents of this newsletter do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.

The FSN Network is being spearheaded by TOPS, a USAID/FFP funded program seeking to build the capacity of FFP grantees and other food security and nutrition implementers. The program is working to improve the quality of implementation through fostering collaboration, innovation, and knowledge sharing around food security and nutrition best practices.
