Introduction from the IDEAL Activity Director

July 2, 2019

Dear prospective applicants,

I am pleased to announce the first in a series of calls for small grant applications to support applied research, test innovative approaches and strengthen strategic learning and adaptive management practices as part of IDEAL. Funded by USAID's Office of Food for Peace (FFP), IDEAL aims to strengthen food and nutrition security among FFP-target populations through promotion of systems-level approaches to improve the design, implementation and overall effectiveness of emergency and development food security activities. This activity will create linkages and strengthen mechanisms for capacity strengthening to aid implementing partners in delivering high quality, effective food and nutrition security programming.

IDEAL is a unique implementer-led project and my team is here to work with you (the implementers) to identify concepts and approaches with the greatest potential impact to reduce hunger. Our small grants program (SGP) aims to grow the evidence base around practices and systems for capacity strengthening and adaptive management leading to stronger food and nutrition security programming.

IDEAL Requests for Applications (RFAs) are designed to identify, fund, and grow innovative ideas from every corner of the globe to benefit the emergency and development food and nutrition security community. These RFAs will be broad and the subsequent awards will not require extensive reporting to allow implementers of all sizes to generate field-focused solutions that are relevant to their work. In the spirit of IDEAL, we encourage all applicants to fully utilize field staff and small local partners to identify the gaps on the ground, design applications and implement projects. Together, these IDEAL-funded activities and products – be it tools, trainings, research papers, and knowledge-sharing events– can address the most pressing challenges of the food and nutrition security sector today.

Sincerely,

Penny Anderson

Penny Anderson
IDEAL Activity Director

A. Authority and Introduction

The purpose of this request for applications (RFA) is to solicit applications that support the development of tools and topic-specific learning events to strengthen the capacity of U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) Office of Food for Peace (FFP) grantees, and the broader food and nutrition security implementing partner community. The awards under this RFA consist of Micro Grants funded up to $50,000 US Dollars for up to 12 months of implementation, as necessary, for strengthening the design, implementation and effectiveness of food and nutrition security activities. IDEAL also intends to issue additional RFAs in 2019 under its SGP in higher funding ranges for other food and nutrition security related subjects.

The first round of applications will close on August 30, 2019 and awards are expected before December 31, 2019. All subsequent applications will be reviewed as part of the second round which closes on November 1, 2019. Questions for this RFA will be collected through July 15, 2019 and responses will be posted on the IDEAL Small Grants Program webpage on the FSN Network website by July 25, 2019.

The authority for these awards is found in the Food for Peace Act of 1954, as amended, and the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended. It is re-delegated to Save the Children Federation Inc. under its Cooperative Agreement No. 72DFFP19LA00001 with USAID.

B. Specific Programmatic Guidance

B1. Background

IDEAL is a five-year USAID FFP funded activity that aims to address knowledge and capacity gaps expressed by the food and nutrition security implementing community. The goal of IDEAL is to strengthen food and nutrition security among FFP-target populations through promotion of systems-level approaches to improve the design, implementation and overall effectiveness of emergency and development food and nutrition security activities. It seeks to achieve this through four pathways: (A) capacity strengthening; (B) peer-to-peer learning; (C) small grants program (SGP); and (D) stakeholder consultations.<sup>1</sup>

The crucial strategic objectives of IDEAL are for: (1) IPs/CoPs establish sustainable systems for strengthening their own capacity in essential elements of quality programming; (2) IPs/CoPs consistently develop, share and apply meaningful analysis for adaptive management of food and nutrition security programs; (3) IPs/CoPs foster sustainable linkages among key stakeholders to improve collaboration, coordination, and efficient action around common goals.

This Micro Grant RFA was crafted to identify and fund innovative approaches and practical solutions to close the knowledge and capacity gaps in priority focus areas. In alignment with IDEAL's mission, each grant will be awarded with the intent to facilitate strategic learning and adaptive management across various organizations.

B2. Objective

The objective of this RFA is:

To solicit applications from food and nutrition security practitioners to support the development of products and tools, conduct events, and implement practical activities to improve the quality of food and nutrition security programming among FFP-target populations. Successful Micro Grant applications will align with IDEAL's content focus areas, the FFP Learning Agenda and identified gaps and needs expressed by implementing partners.

This RFA is not intended to solicit applications for research work done by Development Food Security Activities (DFSAs) during the Refine and Implement (R&I) period.

B3. Focus and Subject Areas

Over the past decade, FFP made significant investments in strengthening implementer capacity in a number of key technical areas central to food and nutrition security (e.g. Agriculture, WASH, Commodity Management, Nutrition Technology). Under IDEAL, the emphasis will shift to underlying content focus areas that have received less attention in recent years but remain central to protecting and enhancing lives and livelihoods while transforming communities and institutions. These focus areas represents areas of current practice for implementing partners working in food and nutrition security and offer clear opportunities for capacity strengthening and enhanced sharing across partners on best and promising practices.

Content Focus Areas<sup>2</sup> for IDEAL:

- 1. Strengthening the quality and impact of emergency programming
- 2. Data collection and analysis for improved program design and impact
- 3. Adaptive management and application of learning
- 4. Integrated activity design and implementation
- 5. Sustainability and planning for exit
- 6. Social and behavior change
- 7. Equity, empowerment, social cohesion and social accountability

Previous food and nutrition security Micro Grants can be found on the Food Security and Nutrition (FSN) Network Library website (<https://www.fsnnetwork.org/resource>). Please note that these Micro Grants were awarded as part of a different program and any awards under this RFA need to be specifically tailored to the criteria of IDEAL and align with the IDEAL content focus area list above. Additionally these activities are only illustrative, and IDEAL welcomes innovative applications as well as practical solutions to carry out a wide range of food and nutrition security activities.

B4. Duration of Micro Grant Award

The duration of an award under this RFA may be up to 12 months from the date of the award. IDEAL, Save the Children Federation, and/or USAID reserves the right to cancel this RFA at any time.

B5. Funding Availability

Final funding levels for each award will depend on content, relevance, quality, number of applications received, needs, and competing priorities, with a ceiling of $50,000 US Dollars, subject to availability of funds. Acceptance of an application under this RFA does not constitute an award, nor does it guarantee that the application, if awarded, will be funded at the full dollar amount requested.

B6. Type and Number of Awards

The award(s) will be a Fixed Amount Award (FAA), which is a type of award that provides a pre-defined level of funding based on a schedule of pre-determined milestones and results rather than reimbursement based on actual costs.<sup>3</sup> By utilizing this awarding mechanism, IDEAL aims to reduce the administrative burden and encourage smaller organizations to apply. IDEAL plans to award multiple FAA grants under this Micro Grant RFA. The number of awards will depend on the quality of applications received, demand, and the availability of funding.

Issuance of this RFA does not constitute an award commitment on the part of Save the Children Federation, Inc. or USAID nor does it commit Save the Children Federation, Inc. or USAID to pay for the costs incurred in the submission of an application. Save the Children Federation, Inc. and USAID reserve the right to reject any or all submissions received and to negotiate separately with an applicant, if such action is considered to be in the best interest of Save the Children Federation, Inc. and the IDEAL donor, USAID.

All proposed costs must be reasonable, allocable, and allowable in accordance with applicable cost principles.

D. Selection Process and Schedule
