Theory of Change Training

The TOPS Program will be hosting an additional Theory of Change Training November 4 - 7, 2014 in Washington, DC. The training, designed and taught by TANGO International, takes participants through the process of developing a theory of change.

The Theory of Change training is designed for program designers and M & E specialists. There are a limited number of spaces available for this training.

To apply for the training, please fill out a short application here by Friday, October 10. Participants will be expected to attend the full workshop, with no substitutions, so be sure you are available all four days.

Please note if you applied for the first Theory of Change Training in October, you do not need to reapply for the November training.

Participants selected to attend the training will be contacted by October 15.

If you have any questions about the training or application process email events@fsnnetwork.org. Stay tuned for announcements of future Theory of Change Training sessions in the FSN Network newsletter.

If you are not already on our e-mail list, sign-up here. We welcome news of events, tools, trainings, country updates and other content from the broad FSN Network community. Please send any suggested content to news@fsnnetwork.org.

The TOPS Program was made possible by the generous support and contribution of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents of this newsletter do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.

The FSN Network is being spearheaded by TOPS, a USAID/FFP funded program seeking to build the capacity of FFP grantees and other food security and nutrition implementers. The program is working to improve the quality of implementation through fostering collaboration, innovation, and knowledge sharing around food security and nutrition best practices.
