Please read below for important announcements from USAID/Office of Food for Peace.

FFP Strategy Update: New opportunities for input from our food security partners

Since its last public consultation at the TOPS/FSN Network Meeting in July, the Office of Food for Peace (FFP) has been engaged in ongoing discussion, key informant interviews and strategy development sessions with FFP staff, other USAID food security experts and a number of academics and researchers.

FFP is close to a milestone in the strategy update process, a draft results framework. In recent months, FFP has also been working to define and articulate key strategic approaches that will facilitate achievement of the goals and results we, as a community, collectively work toward. Increased input from the broader community will help to make both of these efforts stronger.

FFP Results Framework

BRAINSTORMING SESSIONNovember 21, 9:30-12, National Press Club 7th floor

FFP invites you to a brainstorming/visioning session on the key results we should strive for in improving food security for the most vulnerable. What are the capacities we want to strengthen in individuals, households, communities and systems? Where are there opportunities for positive and lasting change? Come join FFP staff for informal small group discussion to share your thoughts.

RSVP by Wednesday, November 19 at noon to ffpstrategy@gmail.com.

CONSULTATION SESSIONDecember 19, 10:30-12

The TOPS Program was made possible by the generous support and contribution of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents of this newsletter do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.

The FSN Network is being spearheaded by TOPS, a USAID/FFP funded program seeking to build the capacity of FFP grantees and other food security and nutrition implementers. The program is working to improve the quality of implementation through fostering collaboration, innovation, and knowledge sharing around food security and nutrition best practices.
