Measuring Resilience in Ethiopia

December 2, 2014; 9:00 - 11:00AM

Washington, DC & Online

Join Tim Frankenberger, President of TANGO International, for a presentation on the USAID Feed the Future FEEDBACK Baseline Results of the Resilience Impact Evaluation of the USAID PRIME Project. Greg Collins, Deputy Director of the Resilience Secretariat of USAID, will moderate.

Pastoral Ethiopia is one of the most shock-prone areas in the world. This impact evaluation provides a unique opportunity to measure resilience and to determine what kinds of interventions will work to maintain and improve households' livelihoods and well-being in the face of shocks.

The presentation will also be broadcast live via webinar, so all are invited to attend.

The TOPS Program was made possible by the generous support and contribution of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents of this newsletter do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.

The FSN Network is being spearheaded by TOPS, a USAID/FFP funded program seeking to build the capacity of FFP grantees and other food security and nutrition implementers. The program is working to improve the quality of implementation through fostering collaboration, innovation, and knowledge sharing around food security and nutrition best practices.
