Join FFP Strategy Update Consultations

January 28, February 4 and February 11, 2015
Washington, DC and Online

TOPS is hosting three partner consultations in January and February to support the development of Food for Peace's updated strategic plan.

These consultations will provide an opportunity to harness the significant experience of FFP implementing partners through small group discussion and other participatory methods exploring the roles most appropriate for FFP and its partners to take on in key strategic areas, implications for such work, and factors for both near-term and long-term success.

- January 28: Social Accountability and Governance
- February 4: Social Protection*
- February 11: Conflict Sensitive Programming

**This consultation was rescheduled from January 12. Please register again for the February 4 consultation even if you already registered for the original January 12 consultation. You do not need to re-register for the other sessions.*

Breakfast and registration will be available starting at 8:30AM, and each consultation will begin at 9:00AM. The first two consultations will run until 12:30PM, and the third consultation will include lunch and run into the afternoon (exact end time TBD).

You may participate in as few or as many of the consultations as you want. Virtual participation will also be available for all sessions.
