Draft of the FFP Strategy 2016-2025 Released for Public Review and Comment

The USAID Office of Food for Peace (FFP) draft strategy 2016-2025 is available for public review and comment.

A message from Dina Esposito, Director of the Office of Food for Peace, outlines the considerations to keep in mind while reviewing the draft strategy. Access the draft strategy here.

Please provide your written comments on the draft by COB Wednesday, July 27, 2016.

Comments should be submitted in a separate Word document, specifying page number, a clear explanation of the issue being raised and, where relevant, suggested revised language. Please send all comments - and any questions you may have regarding this process - to ffpconsultations@usaid.gov.

If you are not already on our e-mail list, sign-up here. We welcome news of events, tools, trainings, country updates and other content from the broad FSN Network community. Please send any suggested content to news@fsnnetwork.org.

The TOPS Program was made possible by the generous support and contribution of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The contents of this newsletter do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.

The FSN Network is being spearheaded by TOPS, a USAID/FFP funded program seeking to build the capacity of FFP grantees and other food security and nutrition implementers. The program is working to improve the quality of implementation through fostering collaboration, innovation, and knowledge sharing around food security and nutrition best practices.
